The importance of indirect and proxy evidence is illustrated and the value of interdisciplinary and modelling approaches emphasised. Agro-pastoralism: focuses on the complex 'time-space adaptations' devised for managing cultivation and livestock production, particularly the need to prevent stock incursions into arable fields during the growing season whilst making effective use of seasonal grazing resources. The contributions focus on mountainous areas, where temporary migrations, in the form of transhumance, provided access to a diversity of resources based around seasonal constraints on their availability and productivity.

Chicken Soup for the Soul, Everyday Catholicism: God's Miracles in Our Lives - LeAnn Thieman

Through the ages up to and including ours, Catholics have witnessed or heard about miraculous events that offer supernatural evidence of God's existence and involvement in our lives. Here is a selection of astonishing true stories that will leave you convinced of the reality of God like never before. This remarkable collation includes the accounts of: Angry 15-year-old Cynthia, who scorns her mother's belief that God will always provide—until she sees an incredible result. ("Thanksgiving Angel") Dawn, who although not Catholic is asked by her dying son if she too can see "Mary" at his bedside. ("Pretty Lady") Courtney, in tears and praying in the back seat of her mother's car after it had stalled, watches the impossible as the gas gauge needle suddenly begins moving above E. ("Fueled by Faith") Terrie, a cash-strapped newlywed who skips a weekly milk purchase only to marvel at how long their one gallon lasts. ("The Milk Jug") Martha, who after 50 years still feels the flood of God's love for her nine-year-old self, who had asked Him for healing and then looked in the mirror. ("Warts and All") Romona, who felt a tapping on her shoulder—twice!—before turning and rescuing her brother. ("My Brother's Keeper") James, a six-year-old whose confidence never wavers, even after losing his trusted knife when fishing. ("The Fish, the Knife, and Saint Jude") Gene, who works three jobs to care for his family and prays for $311—exactly. ("Ask and You Shall Receive") The Everyday Catholicism series from Chicken Soup for the Soul and Sophia Institute Press are books not only about "living the Faith," but also about a Faith that is living. These powerful, uplifting stories show the love of God and His actual presence and engagement in our lives—if only we have the eyes to see! A great gift for Confirmation, RCIA, birthdays, weddings, and holidays.

Camp Miracle - Circle © Benbow 2010-01-18

It was an enormous gamble. Building a mountain retreat for wealthy aristocrats was, by no means, a sure thing. But the family of nine siblings formed a solemn pact unto themselves to do just that. The retreat had all the amenities, including horseback riding, guided hunting, a country club, and its own lake. The centerpiece was to be a world class resort. But the most valuable asset of all was already there. The Family had acquired a large piece of pristine wilderness in California's remote north coastal mountains. They called their Family Mission the "Grand Project." But it would become formally known as HOTEL BENBOW. This is the story of its creation.

Ben's Book of Miracles - Ben Lippert 2012-04-01

In the cold north country of Alberta, Canada, Ben was born into a loving Christian home. Taught about God at an early age, Ben absorbed what he learned, and at 2 1/2 years of age, Ben was known as the little preacher. For the next three years, he lived up to his nickname as he would stand on a chair in a room full of people and "preach" and sing. Ben's Book of Miracles chronicles the life story of Ben Lippert and the miracles God performed in his life and the lives of his loved ones and friends over the course of his life. From restoration of health after extreme illnesses to protection from deadly accidents, Ben has experienced God's guidance firsthand. Ben has always endeavored to share the love of God with others, and this book is an outpouring of that desire.

How It Is with Miracles - Peter Ohren 2005

One day in the middle of a brutal Michigan winter, retired farmer Les Fields is found half-frozen in his barn. He is naked, smeared with animal blood, and raving that Christ appeared to him. He claims God wants a statue made for the church of Saint Cecelia's in the struggling farming community of Decker. Has Jesus really appeared to the troubled farmer? Or has Les simply slipped into madness? The parishioners of Saint Cecelia's must decide. How It Is With Miracles is a powerful story about the nature of faith, told from the perspectives of the three men at the center of the controversy, the troubled farmer, an aged priest and a young artist. As Les's neighbor one day points out to Father Greg, "You know how it is with miracles, Father. Sometimes they're in the eye of the beholder." You too must decide. But miraculous or not, events in Decker that winter and spring profoundly change the lives of the people involved.

Sam and Chloe never thought they would spend the summer holidays fighting a battle against the dark past that haunts Kingsholt, a mansion inherited by Chloe's parents. A long time ago the Vikings burnt down the monastery that was built near Kingsholt. A few monks who escaped hid the monastery's treasure and dug a pit in which to bury the slaughtered monks. They swore that if anyone opened up the pit and used it for other purposes a darkness would fall over the area. Nimbus, an obsessive one-time circus hypnotist and acrobat, lives with his wife and two children in a cottage in the woods of Kingsholt. He opens up the pit and uses it for all his rubbish. With death, kidnap and madness ensuing, can Sam and Chloe and their guardian Aidan, bring back the light to Kingsholt?

Harvest Home - Matthew Scrapper 2015-12-11

From our earliest days, we wrestle with questions of significance. Why am I here? What am I here to do? What is my calling? Is there even a God to call me? If God is real, does he hear me? Can I hear him? These questions, and many like them, have formed the basis for our most contemplative acts, our deepest hopes, and our enduring dreams. We want to be significant. We want to find meaning, to know that we have a purpose. But what is that purpose? What is it that we are here to do...and how do we find out what it is? The rest of this book will be devoted to answering questions like these; questions of purpose and questions of calling. Together, we will explore what it means to work the fields of your life in a way that produces harvest that endures for eternity.

The cult of the saints was central to medieval Christianity largely due to the miraculous. Saints were members of the elect of heaven and could intercede with God on the behalf of supplicants. Whilst people visited shrines and prayed to the saints for many reasons it was the hope of intercession and the praise of miracles past which drove the cult of the saints. This book examines how a person solicited aid from a saint, how they might give thanks and the ways in which post-mortem miracles structured the cult of the saints. A huge number of miracle stories survive from medieval England, in dedicated collections as well as in saints' lives and other source material. This corpus is full of stories of human relationships, vulnerability and deliverance of people from all parts of society. These stories reveal all manner of details about ordinary people in extraordinary circumstances. They also show us how people navigated the world with the aid of the saints. Saints could help with wayward livestock, lost property or lawsuits as well as fire, plague and injury. They could also protect members of their communities, correct lapses by their custodians and even kill those who mistreated them. A respectful relationship with a saint could be proof against any problem. Making Miracles in Medieval England will appeal to all those interested in religious practices in medieval England, medieval English culture, and medieval perceptions of miracles.
