Midnight's Cry - Robert C. Harris 2007-10

The night, or the possibility of Christ returning, begins when the night of the seven year Tribulation begins. To deny this, is to deny the earlier watches of the night (Mark 13:33 37), and the night itself the Day of the Lord. In this vein, the Day of the Lord is pictured as nighttime

(1 Thess. 5:2), that is, before it dawns (2 Pet. 1:19). If the chapter division between 1 Thessalonians 4 & 5 is taken out, which doesn't exist in the original manuscripts, we find that it is not a pre night Rapture that we are to be ready for, but a coming of the Lord as a thief in the night, wherein we are commanded to watch (1 Thess. 5:6-8) and keep our garments (Rev. 16:15). Ironically, the seven year Tribulation and the Day of the Lord both begin with birth pangs (Matt. 24:8; 1 Thess. 5:3) they are one in the same! Now Christians are told to earnestly expect the Day of the Lord in 2 Pet. 3:12 (The word hasting is really to earnestly expect in the Greek.). In suit, since Christians are still here once the Day begins the night (Christ also comes as a thief in the night: in Rev. 16:15), we are told to provoke one another to love and good works, even more so as we see the Day approaching (Heb. 10:24-25). Moreover, it is impossible for the literal salvation to take place before the Day of Jesus Christ (1 Cor. 5:5; Philip. 1:6, 10; 2 Thess. 2:2-3), being before the Day of our Redemption (Eph. 4:30). The pre trib Rapture teaches that Christ's initial coming will happen before the Day of the Lord; before the night (imminently), but conversely, the Word tells us, "Let no man deceive you by any means, for that Day shall not come (speaking of the Day of Christ) until there is a falling away and the man of sin is revealed. The point is, That Day will begin the beginning of the Tribulation; and again, both the Day of the Lord and the Tribulation begin the night, just as we find in Scripture (1 Thess. 5:1-3). Thus the Trump of God in 1 Thessalonians 4:16 is not an anytime trump before the night, but the Last Trump of the Last Day (John 6:40), being the traditional Second Coming. Even the idea of the Lord returning with a shout, and the Trump of God, and the voice of Michael the Archangel clearly also testify of this, and these represent a battle cry. The irony is, that there is no battle at Christ's initial appearance (1 John 3:2), wherein again, we are COMMANDED to watch (1 Thess. 5:6 8) for His appearing and keep our garments (Rev. 16:15). The Day of the Lord, wherein Christ initially returns, again, has the attributes of nighttime (Luke 17:34; Mark 13:35; 1 Thess. 5:2; 2 Pet. 3:10 14; Rev. 2:1, 16:15), that is, before it dawns (2 Pet. 1:19). Thus Christ is the Bright and Morning Star, the sign of the Son of man at the traditional Second Coming or the first light after the NIGHT the dawning of the That Day (2 Pet. 1:19) when the God man returns at the Second Coming with all of His saints (1 Thess. 3:13, 4:14; Jude 14). Indeed, it is That Day, that is, its prior night segment that we are to look for (Heb. 10:24 25), that will come upon the world and much of the Church as a thief in the night (Luke 21:36; 1 Thess. 5:3). Indeed, it is That Day, as Peter Greek-wise tells us, to earnestly expect (1 Pet. 3:12). Indeed, it is That Day when literal redemption will take place (1 Cor. 5:5). Indeed, it is the Day of Christ (2 Thess. 2 3), being the Day of Jesus Christ (Philip.

1:6, 10)BBbeing the Day of our Redemption (Eph. 4:30)! Speaking of the Day of the Lord, it begins when there is a Great Apostasy, and that the Man of sin is revealed to the Body of Christ (2 Thess. 2:2 3), that is, when the Antichrist confirms (Hebrew: insolently prevails) the Old Covenant and/or the rebuilding of the Jewish Temple in a peace movement (Such will cause great

2005-01-26

Our Final Destiny...Revelation Through the Reality of Gods Love is about the final book of the Bible, Revelation of Jesus Christ. Through researching for her first book, Finally Liberated...Through the Reality of Gods Love, Eleanor Stockert experienced the revelation of Gods love. She discovered that the heart of God is to pour out His love on us and through us to help others. It was a revelation that transformed her Christian walk. For over thirty years as a Christian, Stockert had heard people express their fear about the end of the world. Yet, what she discovered in Revelation is that every event to come is enveloped by God's desire to bring as many people into His kingdom as possible. She found that God's purpose in the end times is the same as it has been since the beginning of time to reach out to any and all who will receive His love.

Are We Living in the Time of the End? - United Church of God 2010-09-16

What does Bible prophecy tell us about the time of the end? Are we living in the end time? When will be the end of the world? For thousands of years people have been fascinated with predictions of the end of the world. If we look into the inspired writings of the biblical prophets and apostles, we find many prophecies that refer to the time of the end. Should we take them seriously? Are world conditions such that these prophecies could be fulfilled in our day? Jesus Christ Himself talked of a future time so horrendous that no human lives would be spared

"unless those days were shortened" (Matthew 24:22). Did He have our time in mind? Many biblical warnings leave us in no doubt that increasingly cataclysmic events will occur before God's direct intervention in human affairs. These terrifying prophecies will see their fulfillment at some future time. The crucial question is when. This eye-opening Bible study aid booklet, Are We Living in the Time of the End?, examines exactly what Jesus, His apostles and the biblical prophets really said about the intriguing days they referred to as the time of the end. Inside this Bible Study Aid ebook: "But we should remember that Jesus made it clear that no one could know the exact time of His return: "... Of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only" (Matthew 24:36)." "Some think the subject of the end time in the Bible is mainly confined to the New Testament. But beginning in Genesis, the first book of the Bible, the Scriptures look beyond our present evil age to the time of the establishing of God's Kingdom. Old Testament scriptures have much to say about events that take place during the end of this age and the following "world to come."" "When Scripture mentions "the time of the end" or "the end of the age," it is referring to the coming end of the present evil age. This age—in reality the age of Satan—will draw to an end, replaced by the age of God's rule over and guidance of all of humanity." "Revelation is a book written to reveal the future, and Jesus Christ is the One who does the revealing...Here is the theme of Revelation—the time of the end of the age and the return of Jesus Christ to establish God's Kingdom on earth." "How should we view prophecy? Can it provide spiritual benefits? The apostle Peter mentioned that prophecy should serve to strengthen our hope and faith in the future (2 Peter 1:19)."

To Christians worldwide, the man Jesus of Nazareth is the centerpiece of history, the object of faith, hope, and worship. Even those who do not follow him admit the vast influence of his life. For anyone interested in knowing more about Jesus, study of the four biblical Gospels is essential. The second edition of Four Portraits,

One Jesus has been updated throughout to meet the needs to today's students. It is a thorough yet accessible introduction to the four biblical Gospels and their subject, the life and person of Jesus. Like different artists rendering the same subject using different styles and points of view, the Gospels paint four highly distinctive portraits of the same remarkable Jesus. With clarity and insight, Mark Strauss illuminates these four books addressing the following important areas: First he addresses the nature, origin, methods for study, and historical, religious, and cultural backgrounds of the Gospels. He then moves on to closer study of each narrative and its contribution to our understanding of Jesus, investigating things such as plot, characters, and theme. Finally, he pulls it all together with a detailed examination of what the Gospels teach about Jesus' ministry, message, death, and resurrection, with excursions into the quest for the historical Jesus and the historical reliability of the Gospels. This textbook together with its workbook, video lectures, and laminated sheet gives students everything they need for a thorough and enriching study of Jesus and the Gospels.

The Church in End-Time Prophecy - Curtis

Schulze 2021-04-12

Church in Prophecy Today, the rapture of the church is one of the most disputed end-time topics in all the scriptures. No other end-time doctrine has divided the church more than this subject of the rapture. We have made this all about timing, rather than his return. Many are preoccupied with and distracted by their own particular prediction. The purpose of this book is not to refute one position in favor of another, but to come against the church's obsession and preoccupation with timing. Our focus should be directed toward his return, and not fixed on timing. This is the testimony of the scriptures! Whether he comes early, or whether he tarries, this does not matter to me. What matters to me is the readiness of the church! We need to be ready now and always if he comes early, but if delayed: we will need to be ready to go through the dark and difficult days ahead. We need to prepare our hearts now for what is coming lest it catch us off guard! We need to build our faith to stand under pressure, and we need to build our trust and confidence in Him now to keep us while in tribulation. We will need to settle the matter in our hearts concerning all those things coming on the earth, to lay our lives down at all cost! We will need to prepare our children and loved ones for the day ahead if the Lord tarry. If the Lord did return today, most would not be ready to evacuate! If he were to delay his coming, most are unprepared for the dark and difficult days ahead. I am afraid for the church! I am afraid many will fall away if the rapture does not occur as expected. I am afraid many are taking this too lightly, thinking they are guaranteed a seat on the rapture express but will be left behind because of complacency and indifference toward Christ and the gospel. Either way you look at it, the church is neither ready to leave, nor ready to go through!

We are rapidly are approaching a period in time that the Bible refers to as the End Times. This book explains the end times drawing from Old Testament prophecies, with an emphasis on the book of Isaiah. This 40-year period will begin with nuclear war in the Middle East, then the rapture, the Russian invasion of North America, the Russian invasion of Israel, the Tribulation, and ends with the glorious Second Coming of Christ. This book systematically and concisely goes through these prophecies and puts them in their proper place in history, current events, and future events, along with a proper timeline of this End-Times period. After reading this book, the Christian will be able to understand: The definition of "End Times" and similar terms in the Bible. The role of various nations such as Egypt, Libya, Sudan, Lebanon, Syria, Gaza and West Bank in conflict with Israel. The role of the United States as a world power and the specific parts it plays in the end times.

The Bride of Christ - A Metaphor for the Church
- Norbert Schnell

Lumen gentium, the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church of the Second Vatican Council, uses various images to speak about the Church. This study is about the Church as the Bride of Christ. Unlike the great images of the Church as the People of God and the Body of Christ, the image of the Church as the Bride of Christ has never been extensively examined since the Second Vatican Council. The current research is a biblical and systematic-theological study of this image. Its main question is what this metaphor can tell us about the essence of the Church, and what its consequences are for the life of the Church today.

The Parable of the Ten Virgins - Thomas Shepard 2014-03

Thomas Shepard (1605-1649) was a New England Puritan minister. Forbidden to preach in England, he emigrated to Massachusetts in 1635. The most eloquent measure of his classic The Parable of the Ten Virgins is that there is a scarcely a page in The Religious Affections where Jonathan Edwards does not reference Shepard's work.

Gospelbound - Collin Hansen 2021-04-06

A profound exploration of how to hold on to hope when our unchanging faith collides with a changing culture, from two respected Christian storytellers and thought leaders. “Offers neither spin control nor image maintenance for the evangelical tribe, but genuine hope.”—Russell

Moore, president of ERLC As the pressures of health warnings, economic turmoil, and partisan politics continue to rise, the influence of gospel-focused Christians seems to be waning. In the public square and popular opinion, we are losing our voice right when it’s needed most for Christ’s glory and the common good. But there’s another story unfolding too—if you know where to look. In Gospelbound, Collin Hansen and Sarah Eekhoff Zylstra counter these growing fears with a robust message of resolute hope for anyone hungry for good news. Join them in exploring profound stories of Christians who are quietly changing the world in the name of Jesus—from the wild world of digital media to the stories of ancient saints and unsung contemporary activists on the frontiers of justice and mercy. Discover how, in these dark times, the light of Jesus shines even brighter. You haven’t heard the whole story. And that’s good news.

The Gospel According to Mark - 1999-01-01

The earliest of the four Gospels, the book portrays Jesus as an enigmatic figure, struggling with enemies, his inner and external demons, and with his devoted but disconcerted disciples. Unlike other gospels, his parables are obscure, to be explained secretly to his followers. With an introduction by Nick Cave

Laodicea, Her Authority, Organization, and Destiny - Vernon C. Sparks 2012-03-18

—Protestant Reformation's Final Movement / God's End Time Church— In Revelation 3:14-21, God's end time church is named Laodicea. In those verses, His remnant people are described as having the tendency to evaluate their spiritual condition, and work, at a much higher quality than is Christ's judgment of it. He states that the Laodicean church, though entrusted with the knowledge of His last warning messages for the world are spiritually "wretched," "miserable," "poor," "blind," and "naked." (verse 17). Matthew 25:1-13 is the parable of the ten virgins waiting to attend a wedding feast. In this account Jesus is also describing His remnant people. Christ's story says that "while the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept." (verse 5). This present volume is a Bible and Spirit of Prophecy study regarding the form of, and reasons why, Christ brought His end time people into a highly organized movement. It also describes how Christ's ordained methods of operating His organization tend to be abused, and even ignored. It explains how His people tend to operate Christ's publishing, educational, health, and even ministerial work more in harmony with the wisdom and wishes of man and the world than with the clear directives of the Lord whom we claim to be serving. But, all is not gloom and doom. There is counsel as to how to revive from the Laodicean condition. This present volume goes into detail as to what Christ will do to awaken His people. It presents the inspired explanations as to how His remnant will be "shaken" into the condition necessary for Him to be able to pour out upon them the Latter Rain to empower and equip them to give the Loud Cry and thus finish His work upon this earth. Lord's Day Cry - Robert Harris 2006-02

Greetings-I'm Robert Harris; in writing Lord's Day Cry I've combined doctrinal readiness with the fact of Christ's Bridegroom Return. Suitably, this work makes plain Christ's initial return, which is not an at-once redemption-whether it be the at-once Rapture, or the Second Coming. Actually, both above teachings negate large portions of Scripture. Indeed, if either of these teachings represented the whole truth, then there wouldn't be a need to watch, or a need to prepare. No Tribulation Night? No Midnight Cry? No four watches? No doors? No knocking? No Jewish wedding? No Wedding Feast? No Bridegroom Return with two male witnesses? No first fruits? No Like Manner Return? No partial Summer Harvest? No early and latter rains? No thief like coming in That Night? No place prepared for us? No, we are not bought with a price? In perceiving Christ's first coming, these many Scriptural references all intricately link to a Jewish nighttime wedding. No, these many references are not all just allegoric and meaningless, as many would have us believe. Now Jesus warned, "Take heed to yourselves, lest at anytime your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting (overindulgence), and drunkenness, and the cares of this life, so that day come upon you unawares. . . . Watch you therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things . . . ." (Luke 21:34-36). Here, in praying always, it is the Christian that is to be sober in doctrine, and not to be overtaken with overindulgence and the cares of this life—not the unbeliever (1 Thess. 5:6-8). Sadly, the need to look for the Day of our Redemption, not to mention the need of preparedness for Christ's Bridegroom Return, isn't widely being taught in the Body of Christ. It's time to change that!

Get Ready - Robert C. Harris 2014-01-01

The way this author understands it, the initial coming of Christ will happen early in the night segment of the Day of the Lord long before it dawns (the seven-year Tribulation period). This is His first coming, which is an Open Door Return in That Night (Matt. 25:10; Rev. 3:10). The second coming of Christ, not the traditional Second Coming, is His Closed Door Return in That Night, sometime after the Great Tribulation begins at mid-trib (Matt. 25:10; Luke 12:36; James 5:9; Rev. 3:20). Both returns will be Jewish Bridegroom returns "at the doors" (Matt. 24:33). His third coming will be the glorious traditional Second Coming with all His saints (1 Thess. 3:13; Jude V. 14), or at the Second Coming dawn when Christ the Daystar is the first light after the seven-year night (2 Pet. 1:19)! Now the question is, are there any Scriptures to back this up? You bet—tons! The Midnight Cry in the Parable of the Ten Virgins (Matt. 25:6) symbolizes the beginning of a new day—namely, the Day of the Lord in That Night—which is the Day of Redemption (Eph. 4:30)—which is the Day of Jesus Christ (Philip. 1:6, 10)—which is the Day of Christ (2 Cor. 2:16; 2 Thess. 2:2-3)—which is the Day of the Lord Jesus (1 Cor. 5:5; 2 Cor. 1:14)—which is the Day of the Lord Jesus Christ (1 Cor. 1:7-8)—which is the Lord's Day (Rev. 1:10)—which is the Day of the Lord which comes as a thief in the night (1 Thess. 5:2; 2 Pet. 3:10). In sum, it is the Day that Christians are to see approaching (Heb. 10:25), lest the Day come unawares (Luke 21:34). Thus, the book name: Get Ready, which addresses the issues of Christianity, while mixing the understanding of end-time events with sound doctrine and biblical preparedness. Simply put, if the entire Church were to go up in an at once pre-trib Rapture (pre-night), or an at once automatic redemption at the traditional Second Coming, why then the command to pray always—to escape all these things that are coming upon the world (Luke 21:34-36)? Moreover, why then the many outright commands to watch (Matt. 24:40-51, 25:13; Mark 13:33-37; Luke 12:36, 38, 40, 17:34; 1 Thess. 5:6; 1 Pet. 4:7; 1 John 2:28; Rev. 3:3, 16:15.)? On this note, if the chapter division is removed between 1st Thessalonians 4 & 5, we don't see a pre-trib Rapture, but a return of Christ in the night segment of the Day of the Lord, which in that passage Paul describes as beginning with birth pangs as does the seven-year Tribulation (also, see Matt. 24:8). Additionally, we immediately behold the "times and seasons," and in suit we are told to watch (1 Thess. 5:6-8), and this, in the night segment of the Day of the Lord before it dawns (Mark 13:33-37; 2 Pet. 1:19). Biblical watching is to put on faith that works by love (1 Thess. 5:6-8). Indeed, there is a partial Summer Harvest for the prepared in the Body of Christ (Matt. 24:32-33). Speaking of the Summer Harvest, the Early and Latter Rains in the New Testament are symbolic of the Holy Spirit preparing His people for the last days (James 5:7). The Early Rain, as we can verify in any Bible Concordance, was Israel's seed-time rain (November-December). The Latter Rain, which can also be verified in this manner, was Israel's March-April rain in the last preparation for the Spring-Summer Harvest (partial)—"times and seasons." "Times" represents the three returns of Christ, and the "seasons" represent the same—the Summer Harvest, the Fall Harvest and the gleanings of the Second Coming. Obviously, there is more than one time, more than one season. Altogether, these are the “times of restitution” (Acts 3:21). Get Ready details the Lord's initial Bridegroom Return(s), and the how of recognizing the Day of our Redemption when it starts. Moreover, Get Ready addresses the seven letters to the churches, appropriately applying them to today's end-time Church.

Last Call for the Church - Patricia C. Mcglennon 2016-02-10

There is a power shift coming, and a pivotal turning point in human history is on the horizon. Radical Islamic terrorism and the possibility of a nuclear war have overwhelmed the entire world. The safety net that once protected us has been broken. Prophetic events are speeding up! The global upheaval the world is currently witnessing is only the beginning of unimaginable chaos. Last Call for the Church delivers a powerful and convincing precept upon precept endtimes teaching on the Second Coming of Christ, the Rapture, and the crucial timing of why only the Father knows when His son will return. The author is a real-life storyteller, and she accomplishes the call to understand the Rapture of the church, what it will be like, and why Jesus found it necessary to teach in terms of a wedding, a bride, and to reference Himself as a Bridegroom. The author exclusively writes to you, the reader. She takes you on a classroom tour of prophecies and parables, and offers a strong case for an aggressive Pre-Tribulation Rapture based on Scripture, and the frequencies of current worldwide trends. She writes just as straightforward as she teaches. In Last Call for the Church, you will get a truly unique understanding of the Rapture, eschatologically, as it applies to a collective body of believers, referred to in the Bible as a bride, or better known as the Bride of Christ, the church. "Do not let your hearts be troubled," John 14:1. Last Call for the Church presents the "traditions" of an ancient Jewish wedding along with many obsolete Hebraic idioms and their prophetic meaning on the landscape of Eschatology and End times prophecy. Last Call for the Church is not a date setter for the Rapture. It is a love story! A love so great; it frees the captive and reaffirms the eternal Word of God. The King is coming.

The Rapture - Debbie Furey 2018-07-25

The Rapture of the Church is a time when Jesus Christ comes back for his bride after preparing a place for us like he promised in John 14:1-3. This book examines what will take place when that event occurs. Just as there was hidden prophecies about Christ's first coming, should we be surprised there are hidden prophecies related to Jesus Christ's second coming? An example of this in the book of Ruth paints a picture of the return of the Jews coming back into their land shortly before the marriage of Jesus Christ and his church. Another hidden prophecy is a picture of the ten virgins, five wise and five foolish, hidden in the Song of Solomon. This story shows what will happen to those who are ready and those who are not. In the story of Leah and Rachel in Genesis, we see a picture of the church and Israel in the "End Times." All of these hidden prophecies show the love Jesus has for his bride, the church, and his longing to return for her. As you read these pages, I hope you feel the heart beat of God as the nearness of the Rapture draws near. This book examines the questions: - Will all Christians be taken in the Rapture? - How is Jesus' return like the "days of Noah"? - How is Jesus' return like the "days of Lot"? - How is the Rapture a picture of the ancient Jewish wedding customs? - What is the hidden prophetic meaning of the number two? My hope in your reading this book is that on the day the cry is made, "behold the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him" (Matthew 25:6, KJV), you will joyfully light your lamp and go out to meet him.

Understanding End Times Prophecy - Paul N. Benware 2006-05-01

Many Christians think of end times prophecy as a gigantic, intimidating puzzle -- difficult to piece together and impossible to figure out. But every puzzle can be solved if you approach it the right way. Paul Benware compares prophecy to a picture puzzle. Putting the edge pieces together first builds the 'framework' that makes it easier to fit the other pieces in their place. According to Benware, the framework for eschatology is the biblical covenants. He begins his comprehensive survey by explaining the major covenants. Then he discusses several different interpretations of end times prophecy. Benware digs into the details of the Rapture, the Great Tribulation, the judgements and resurrections, and the millennial kingdom. But he also adds a unique, personal element to the study, answering questions as: -Why study bible prophecy? -What difference does it make if I'm premillennial or amillennial? If what the Bible says about the future puzzles you, Understanding End Times Prophecy will help you put together the pieces and see the big picture.

Is God Still Coming? - Shion Oconnor 2022-07-19

There are worldwide concerns that the planet is on the brink of extinction, but just how close are we to the end? Is there a prophetic significance of Brexit for example? What about climate change? Since the earth was created thousands of years ago, why was there no concern of a global extinction before now? What is it about now, that worries climatologists and meteorologists, and for that matter, epidemiologists, and virologists? Is there a prophetic significance in the timing of the Covid19 pandemic, or the rise in global social unrests like BLM? Did the Bible prophets foresee the rise of Silicon Valley, the explosion of Artificial Intelligence or the break-neck speed in information technology? If so, what is their prophetic utility in decoding the timetable for the end? How does the combination of science and eschatology help us to appreciate our proximity to the brink? This shocking revelation answers the question, 'Is God Still Coming?'

An Outline of the End Times - PT Nicholson
2016-12-15

An Outline of the End Times is written by a layperson for laypeople. In an attempt to be comprehensive yet concise and thorough, PT Nicholson explores prophetic scripture in relation to the end times. He weighs up counterarguments of key issues that divide Christians regarding the tribulation and the millennium and carefully synthesizes an outline of events without overlooking difficulties. Combined with exhaustive scripture references, he uses charts, tables, maps, sketches, and graphs to explain issues and analyse topics as succinctly as possible. About 25 percent of the Bible is prophecy and, according to a well-known and respected scholar on Bible prophecy, John Walvoord, five hundred of one thousand prophetic events remain unfulfilled. Yet many Christians have only a vague notion of how end-time events will unfold due to inadequate teaching and a shortage of comprehensively researched books on the subject. An Outline of the End Times serves as a reference resource to help meet this need.

Walking with the King - Eleanor Stockert
2016-04-15

Walking with the King through the Reality of Gods Love is a book for anyone desiring a deeper, more intimate relationship with their Father God. It is a book that points to His limitless love for His children and His never-ending desire to see them blessed and protected. It encourages believers to trust in the Fathers Love to provide for every need in their lives. It is also a book that warns believers against having a superficial relationship with their Heavenly Father claiming to know and love Him, but treating Him and His Word as unimportant through benign neglect. In these last days, which are becoming increasingly more dangerous, the only true place of safety and security is found in the presence of God the Father. Walking with the King through the Reality of Gods Love is Eleanor Stockerts third book dealing with the reality of Gods Love. As in the first two books, Finally Liberated Through the Reality of Gods Love and Our Final Destiny Revelation Through the Reality of Gods Love, Stockert leads the reader to a deeper level of understanding of Gods Love as seen through the heart of a good Father. Walking with the King enables believers to enjoy the abundant life Jesus died to give them.

UNDERSTANDING THE END TIMES - Dr. Simon Rock Njolomah 2012-01-07

This book is to furnish information that can make sense to both the student of Eschatology and the layman. Thus while the book is useful to the scholar it is also easily understood by the general seeker of truth. Current and unfolding world events are also examined in the light and context of Scripture. The book has both a persuasive and combative approach. There are no ill feelings towards those teachers and authors with whom this author is at variance in certain areas of the subject.

Are These the Last Days? - Charles Schmitt

The Advent of the End-Time Church - David J. Wiseman
2004-06-02

Since the beginning of the Christian Church, two parallel churches have existed. There is the church organization, so often controlled by man, rather than by God and there is the true spiritual church the remnant that walks in obedience with God regardless of the name over the door. The Advent of The End-Time Church investigates the end-time church and its origins. There is a decaying organizational church but within it is a glorious church without spot or wrinkle that our Lord is coming back to claim. It examines the strengths, weaknesses and practices of the church universal. It is a call for the body of Christ to band together with these strengths in these last days for there is one Lord and one church. The Christian must be vigilant against being seduced and fooled. It is a warning to God's people how they can be lulled to sleep by stagnant tradition and doctrines, which they believe are time-proven but many of which can be traced to seeds of Gentile paganism. Being grounded in contemporary events, it is a warning to wake up, not only to what is happening in society but also within the church.
